Pursuant to Rule 14a-12 under the
Securities Exchange Act of 1934
Subject Company: Acxiom Corporation
Commission File No.: 000-13163

This filing consists of an email from Charles Morgan, the Company Leader, to the Company's employees regarding the proposed acquisition.

Hello, everyone. Early this morning we marked the close of the 60-day period that followed the signing of Acxiom's definitive agreement with Silver Lake and ValueAct Capital in which the firms agreed to purchase our company for $27.10 a share in a deal worth about $3 billion.

We announced when the deal was signed in May that Acxiom's board of directors for two months would solicit and entertain acquisition offers other companies might make.

Today I want to tell you that while our board did have discussions with other interested parties, no superior bids were forthcoming. So we now will move forward with Silver Lake and ValueAct Capital unless a proposal is received that is superior to the present offer.

The next steps will be to:

- Finalize our proxy materials, which the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission is currently reviewing
- Schedule our shareholders meeting
- Mail the proxy materials to all Acxiom shareholders
- Announce the results of the shareholders' vote at the meeting – with a two-thirds majority required to approve the acquisition.

Because we cannot predict when the SEC will complete its review process of our proxy materials, the timetable for the shareholders meeting and the mailing of those materials can't be determined at this point.

You should know that another company could still technically make a proposal for the board's consideration between now and the shareholder meeting date. And if that occurs, we will communicate that news as quickly as we can.

Thanks, everyone, and please know that I will share new details with you as they emerge.
